Celebrating 90 years of struggle

By Political Affairs

Editor's note: This archive is something of a sampling of the 90 years of the Communist Party's part in the struggle for democracy, social justice, equality, environmental justice, workers rights and socialism.

It is not meant as an exhaustive compendium of that history, but as a starting point for the honest researcher seeking the truth about a side of working-class history in the US rarely broached in mainstream circles.

It is a history that is embedded in American history, like the stories of Crispus Attack, John Brown, Alice Paul and Cesar Chavez – seldom told honestly by those in power because of a deep-abiding fear of real change.

Please enjoy and share.
